Ruvuma Farm-out Update

Aminex PLC, ('Aminex'), a London and Dublin premium-listed oil and gas company with assets in the emerging hydrocarbon province of East Africa, provides an update on its proposed farm-out of an interest in the onshore Ruvuma Basin, Tanzania, where it made a discovery of natural gas and condensate in 2012.

Discussions are ongoing with a number of parties and a further announcement will be made when appropriate.

Aminex (operator) has a 75% interest in the Ruvuma Production Sharing Contract and the remaining 25% is held by Solo Oil PLC.
